April 5, 2012, the Jumpstart Our Business Startups (JOBS) Act was signed into law by President Barack Obama. The Act requires the SEC to write rules and issue studies on capital formation, disclosure and registration requirements;

Cost-effective access to capital for companies of all sizes plays a critical role in our national economy;

Companies seeking access to capital should not be hindered by unnecessary or overly burdensome regulations;

To write rules that both facilitate capital formation and promote investor protection.
